Montezuma's Announce 2014 Fathers Day Range

Thursday 20 March, 2014

Montezuma's are delighted to announce their 2014 Father's Day range. The range consists of four fantastic limited edition products suitable for that special man in your life.

'We get very excited about the Father's Day range as it's the only time of year we get to focus just on men and what they like, chunky chocolate with bold flavours is certainly the way to go with this range!' Simon Pattinson Co Founder and Director.

The range's look is bright and eye catching with a pop art inspired theme.

Firstly the limited edition truffle collection available in medium & large sizes includes a decadent milk chocolate truffle with a grand mariner punch and a sweet butterscotch crunch, and a moody dark chocolate truffle flavoured with the magical combination of lime and sea salt.

We have a clever little Library gift collection of our best 'Daddy' bars including Sea Dog, Lordy Lord, Dark Side, Bean Machine & Chilli. 5 fabulous best selling 100g bars in a cool gift box so all you need to do is hand it over!

Finally a fabulous gift hamper including the limited edition father's day truffles, the best selling milk chocolate buttons, and two of the favourite 100g bars Open Sesame and Lordy Lord. In a lovely Natural Gift Box with blue ribbon and tag if you really want to earn some extra brownie points and impress your Dad this is the perfect gift.

All our range is available at our five shops (Brighton, Chichester, Winchester, Kingston upon Thames and Spitalfields Market in London) our website montezumas.co.uk, as well as John Lewis, Debenhams, moonpig.com and all good independent fine food stores nationwide.
