Navartis Recognised in London Stock Exchange Group's 1000 Companies to Inspire Britain in 2018

Thursday 7 June, 2018

Each year, the London Stock Exchange Group announces their 1000 Companies to Inspire Britain list, and thousands upon thousands of small and medium sized businesses across the United Kingdom and Europe hope to be recognised by this prestigious listing.

This year, Navartis has earned a spot on the list for a second time joining the likes of BrewDog, Secret Escapes and many other fast-growing well-established businesses.

According to Prime Minister Theresa May, "I believe in a brighter future for this country, one in which new technology and new thinking brings better jobs for more people. The 1,000 innovative companies recognised in this report are at the forefront of doing just that."

"Small and medium-sized enterprises are the heartbeat of our economy, driving jobs and growth," said Nikhil Rathi, Chief Executive at the London Stock Exchange Group.

While recognising standout small and medium sized companies, the London Stock Exchange Group sift through thousands of businesses to look for those who truly outshine their competition. To be considered, companies must have noticeable and consistent revenue growth over a period of no less than three years, and they must be outperforming others in their industry.

The inclusion in the 1000 Companies to Inspire Britain in 2018 listing marks the Navartis team's second time being recognised by the London Stock Exchange Group. Navartis was also included in 2017.

In addition, Navartis was listed #11 in the 2017 Growth 100 Insider Magazine Awards and #3 in the Recruiter's FAST 50 2018 listing.

"We're delighted to be included in such a highly regarded report, and it's great to see our name alongside many other well-established businesses," said Jim Sloan, Managing Director at Navartis Ltd. "It's also important for us to maintain the same, exceptionally high levels of service for our clients and the candidates we work with as we continue to grow and be showcased as a dynamic business."

Navartis debuted in 2006 and has become known as the project recruitment specialists for candidates and clients alike. Offering a pioneering outlook, the forward-thinking company's mission is to deliver the most quality and professionalism to clients as possible, and the team at Navartis works to be authentic, honest, positive, and hardworking in a fashion that's unparalleled.

Navartis thanks the London Stock Exchange Group for recognising their passion by placing them upon the 1000 Companies to Inspire Britain in 2018 list. More information can be found at https://www.navartis.co.uk/news/navartis-inspiring-the-nation-81432314353.
