Ness Official Nominee Scottish Fashion Awards 2013

Monday 19 August, 2013

ess is delighted to be an Official Nominee of the Scottish Fashion Awards 2013.

The event, which will be hosted by style icon Laura Whitmore on 9th October in London, recognises the most influential Scottish players in fashion, working in Scotland and around the world. It also provides an unrivalled platform for new and emerging talent hailing from Scotland and is attended by influential industry leaders, designers, models, retailers and celebrities and celebrates the best of what Scotland has to offer in fashion, design and textiles.

Nominations were selected from leading figures in fashion and an online nomination system. An exclusive panel made up of professionals from the world's leading fashion houses, the most renowned and respected fashion publications and leading figures in style will judge the finalists.

The Awards have become one of the most high profile showcases of Scottish fashion, design and textiles in the country and are respected around the world.
Founded in Edinburgh in 1996, Ness takes inspiration from the contemporary feel and flavour of its birthplace while genially thumbing its nose at tradition. Ness focuses on bringing tartan & tweed pieces, such as kilts and a contemporary bag & accessory collection; into the moment and showing they are on-trend, edgy and stylish.
