attended the '50 Best Managed IT Companies Awards' Reception for the second year running. The London based IT company was announced as a winner of the prestigious award placing them amongst the top IT Support companies in the UK.

The award recognises the top 50 IT Companies in the UK for their outstanding achievement in running their businesses based on best practices.

This award recognises the top 50 companies in Britain. Mit Patel, Managing Director at Netstar says "Being listed as one of the 50 Best Managed IT Companies in the UK for a second year running demonstrates our continued commitment to providing the highest quality service possible to our clients. We strive to continually refine our processes in order to achieve this."

To achieve this award, the channel partner must have completed a two hundred question assessment in all areas of business practices. Each response is scored and benchmarked, with the companies with the highest 50 scores receiving the award.

The global business practice benchmarking program and awards are managed by TechnoPlanet and its news media division eChannelNEWS.com. To learn more about this award, please go to www.bestmanageditcompanies.com/uk
