Never a better excuse for a cuppa and cake!

Wednesday 22 March, 2017

Dear Editor,

As my listeners will know, I never need an excuse for a cuppa, or a chocolate treat for that matter! So that's why The Sick Children's Trust's Big Chocolate Tea is a must-do event for me. And I'd love you to take part too!

Big Chocolate Tea is The Sick Children's Trust's most chocola-tea fundraiser which raises money to support families with seriously ill children undergoing lifesaving treatment in hospital.

This is the perfect event for baking gurus, chocolate enthusiasts and caffeine lovers, or anyone who wants to join forces with friends, family and colleagues to help a charity close to my heart.

So why not join in the fun from Friday 21 April to Monday 1 May? Hold a Big Chocolate Tea event at work, school, or home and help The Sick Children's Trust keep families with sick children together.

Order your free pack of goodies and raise at least £30 to give a family with sick children a 'Home from Home' for one night. Go to: http://www.sickchildrenstrust.org/bigchoctea/.
