

New Consultant Solicitor for Warners Solicitors

Monday 11 June, 2018

Warners Solicitors, with offices in Sevenoaks and Tonbridge, has appointed John Beynon to join its Corporate, Commercial & IP team as a consultant solicitor. John has over 30 years' experience in business law, employment law and commercial litigation. He has acted for individuals and business organisations of all sizes. John will be joining Warners in June, having previously run his own practice in South London.

John lives in Orpington and his interests include swimming, live music and supporting Crystal Palace FC.

John said: "I'm delighted to be joining Warners, it is well known for giving sound, pragmatic advice to its clients and is regularly recognised by the legal directories as being one of the best law firms in the South East. Through joining Warners I will be able to offer my clients and contacts a more comprehensive range of services, particularly for property and private client work."

David Wilson, chairman at Warners, said: "We are looking forward to welcoming John to Warners. His wealth of experience will be of huge benefit to our clients and the team here in Tonbridge."
