New Deals Comparison Site, SignUpOffers.com, Launches

Tuesday 18 February, 2020

A new online deals site has launched in the UK, giving shoppers the chance to claim deals, sign up offers , promotions, promo codes and bonuses across thousands of retailers.

SignUpOffers.com, which promises to outshine the many other deals sites on the market, delivers a live feed of unbeatable deals, instantly refreshed when new offers become available.

Promoting time-limited deals as well as long-standing promotions, SignUpOffers.com is working in partnership with companies from all over the world. From local stores to multi-national businesses and household brands, the site aims to give every shopper the chance to save money on the products, services, and subscriptions they love.

Leon Hughes, Founder of the deal comparison site, believes he has identified a gap in the market for an honest, transparent platform of this nature.

Talking at the business' launch, he said:

"Too often do we see flashing deals from companies such as Wowcher and Groupon. But, it is no secret that such deals come with huge commission fees for the businesses offering them. With the launch of SignUpOffers.com, we bring a fresh approach to the industry, with our zero-fee, zero commission setup meaning a better deal for both consumers and businesses alike."

Ridding of these fees, SignUpOffers.com is hugely confident that their deals are more attractive than those promoted through their competitors, with businesses not having to factor in the fees when building their promotions. These savings are then passed onto the customer, meaning everyone wins!

So, whether you are looking to save money on wine orders, beauty treatments, makeup, cinema tickets or magazine subscriptions, SignUpOffers.com is the site for you!
