NEW SENSORY SHOW SAILS INTO SUSSEX FOR EASTER HALF TERM

Tuesday 15 March, 2022

Sailing to a school venue near you this Easter!

Head2Head Sensory Theatre, a disabilities theatre charity, has announced a NEW roaming relaxed sensory show – Odie's Odd Odyssey to tour schools in Worthing, Chichester, Horsham and Lewes in Sussex this April, between 4 and 22 April 2022.

Based on Homer's The Odyssey, Odie's Odd Odyssey is an interactive and 'roaming' sensory show created especially for a special needs' audiences but accessible to all, irrespective of age or stage of development.

Join Odie, as part of the ship's crew, on their treacherous journey home to Ithaca.

Alongside Odie and his friends, embark on a mythical journey through ancient lands, be entranced by the lotus flowers, escape from Cyclops, be turned into a pig, lured by sirens, battle Scylla the 3-headed beast, and much more!

Makaton signed throughout, with plenty of singing, every scene is designed to be performed alongside the audience, not in front of them, making this a fully immersive, interactive and sensory experience - filled with sensory moments to captivate the audience.

Tickets cost just £5 per person.
