A Statement from Randeep S Lall, CEO of NishkamSWAT

"We know kids are hungry. We know they can't afford food. How does one's conscience allow for us to forget about them during the school holidays? Our next generation are going to be running this country. We need to take our responsibility seriously to look after them.

At NishkamSWAT we treat all children as our own therefore we are pledging unlimited vegetarian meals for all children in need.

Your child will not go hungry."
