Not so secret assignment. The Hope Ball to help transform children's lives around the World

Thursday 26 May, 2016

Hope for Children, has today announced the launch of The Hope Ball 2016, to be held at The Royal Horseguards Hotel in London on 10th November.

The Hope Ball is the headline fundraising event of Hope for Children, an international charity that passionately believes every child has the right to a childhood. This black tie event will take place at the majestic five-star flagship hotel of the Guoman Hotel Group – one with a secret past. It was once the home and office of the first 'Chief' of Secret Intelligence Service, Sir Mansfield Cumming, and was used during the war as the offices of MI5 and MI6.

Attendees will have the chance to enjoy one of the most spectacular venues in central London, celebrate some of the outstanding achievements of our supporters, and hear first-hand about the transformational impact we have had on vulnerable children around the world from the people who are making the difference!

During dinner they will hear about the outstanding achievements of our supporters including awards for Student Fundraiser of the Year, Corporate Partner of the Year, the Team Hope Award, and the Hope Award for Outstanding Contribution to the Charity.

Unfortunately, Hope or Children is still as relevant today as when it first started, 22 years ago.

1 billion children continue to face extreme poverty every day and aren't able to experience a positive childhood. The charity is improving children's access to education and healthcare and empowering their families to support themselves whilst developing their confidence and self-esteem. Most importantly they are giving them hope.

Tickets and tables of 10-12 are available on www.thehopeball.co.uk or by contacting the charity directly and for companies, invoices are available upon request. For those unable to attend but who would still like to be involved with The Hope Ball 2016, there will be raffle tickets available for purchase ahead of the event.

A live auction with money-can't-buy prizes and a night filled with entertainment, celebration, and dancing will follow for what is certain to be a night to remember!

Murielle Maupoint, the charity's Chief Executive commented "This is the perfect opportunity to thank and celebrate the magnificent efforts of all our supporters over the past year and of course to raise more funds to enable even more children to have the childhood they deserve."
