NTT awarded 2021 Company of the Year in the Asia-Pacific Managed Security Services Industry by Frost & Sullivan

Wednesday 20 October, 2021

Singapore, 20 October 2021 — NTT Ltd., a world-leading global technology and business solutions provider, announced today that it has been awarded the 2021 Company of the Year in the Asia-Pacific Managed Security Services (MSS) Industry for Excellence in Best Practices by Frost & Sullivan. This is the third year in a row for NTT to be recognized for its strong performance in the industry.

Excelling in Visionary Innovation and Performance as well as Customer Impact, NTT was recognized as outstanding in many of the criteria in the Asia-Pacific managed security service space, including addressing unmet needs, price to performance value and customer service experience.

Being awarded as the Company of the Year is a top honor that recognizes NTT for its wide market coverage, financial performance, continuous technology enhancements, comprehensive service offerings, and excellent brand reputation in the Asia-Pacific MSS sphere in 2021. The company's competitive offerings address the growing demand for MSS among businesses in the region due to greater challenges in security operations.

Amy Lin, Industry Analyst at Frost and Sullivan commented, “As organizations increase reliance on cloud services and the need to secure cloud environments, NTT continues to stand out from its competitors in the region. NTT's broad offerings allow it to offer customers a strong security assurance covering the entire digital transformation lifecycle in different environments. NTT boasts an impressive double-digit year-on-year growth with businesses in markets like Japan and Singapore, employing over 2000 security specialists, architects, and engineers worldwide, which affirms its position as an industry leader among Asia-Pacific MSS providers.”

The annual Frost & Sullivan Best Practices Awards recognize Asia-Pacific organizations that exemplify outstanding achievements and superior performance in innovative, disruptive breakthroughs. NTT's history of providing services to multinational corporations and Fortune 500 companies has led the global technology company to gain valuable experience and stay ahead of the curve.

“Having our hard work and commitment recognized by Frost & Sullivan yet again, is a tremendous honor and encouragement,” said Kazu Yozawa, CEO Security division, NTT Ltd. “As demand for MSS grows among businesses in the region due to greater challenges in security operations, we will continue to deploy our extensive expertise, experience, resources, and technologies to fortify the region’s cybersecurity offerings.”

Frost & Sullivan's global team of analysts and consultants award recipients after an extensive selection process that involves meticulous research, in-depth interviews, analysis, and industry benchmarking.
