Odyssey New Media wins ‘Digital Agency of the Year 2019’ from the Birmingham Prestige Awards

Tuesday 8 October, 2019

In August 2019, Odyssey New Media was announced as the winner of the coveted ‘Digital Agency of the Year 2019’ from the Birmingham Prestige Awards.

The Corporate Livewire Prestige Awards celebrates small and medium-sized businesses that have proven to be successful and have flourished in their competitive market over the past 12 months. For 2019, they introduced regional awards in recognition of the successes that local businesses have achieved.

In order to qualify as a contender for the prestigious award of ‘Digital Agency of the Year 2019’, Odyssey New Media was nominated by several clients and had to show evidence that their business was established within the Birmingham area.

All clients who nominated Odyssey New Media for the award have very impressive results thanks to high converting websites and marketing campaigns that have been set up and are being managed for them on a monthly basis.

As a result, Odyssey New Media came ahead of the fierce competition from other Birmingham-based companies in their category. Odyssey New Media is absolutely delighted to have been recognised and acknowledged by the Birmingham Prestige Awards for their great efforts.

Robert Stoubos, Managing Director at Odyssey New Media, added: “We are thrilled to have won the ‘Digital Agency of the Year 2019’ award and we would like to express our gratitude to our family, staff, partners and our customers who supported our nomination with feedback and testimonials.”

Odyssey New Media is a leading digital marketing agency in Birmingham that provides a full range of digital development and marketing services. They have worked with an extensive list of recognised brands in the UK and internationally, including The Midcounties Co-operative, Nutrahealth, Marval Software, Fair Deal Music and many more.
