

OLIVIA BURTON LAUNCHES 'RAINBOW OF HOPE' WATCH IN AID OF NHS CHARITIES TOGETHER

Tuesday 13 April, 2021

Olivia Burton have today announced their support for the NHS charity organisation, NHS Charities Together, with the upcoming release of their Rainbow of Hope watch. The watch releases this month with £10 from each sale being donated to NHS Charities Together.

Marcos Lopez, President of Olivia Burton, commented: "During what has been a period of extreme uncertainty we looked to the NHS for guidance, support and strength. Today, I am proud to officially announce Olivia Burton's support for the NHS and we hope that our donation to NHS Charities Together will serve to give back to those who so selflessly gave to us."

Chief Executive of NHS Charities Together, Ellie Orton, has also commented on the brand's support for the charity, saying: "We are thrilled and thankful to be part of Olivia Burton's collection with the Rainbow of Hope watch, which represents so much pride and positivity. Every customer's £10 donation will go towards supporting NHS workers, volunteers and patients at the centre of the crisis, making a huge difference to so many lives."

Olivia Burton's Rainbow of Hope design was born from the first UK lockdown in 2020, when the brand released their rainbow illustration on social media to show their support for the NHS. The response was overwhelming with fans of the brand re-sharing the post and adorning their homes with the uplifting print.

The Rainbow of Hope watch houses that same artisanal print, with hand-illustrated watercolour rainbow and butterfly motifs. A positivity-inspired style that encapsulates the sense of pride in, and undying gratitude for, the NHS.
