Only Chefs, the niche recruitment platform for professional chefs has won the best Hospitality Recruitment Platform at the latest SME News Annual Awards.

In a tough category the website was commended for providing ground-breaking solutions to the staffing industry.

Mark Milner, Only Chefs founder commented:

‘To be recognised for innovation at a time of industry evolution and during a pandemic is a great testament to the whole Only Chefs team, it’s also evidence that the industry is excited about new ways to hire and undertake the recruitment process.’

‘This award also comes at great time for us as we launch our #KeepChefsWorking campaign - an initiative aimed at getting as many chefs as possible back in to work during 2021. We are currently offering 3 months complimentary access to Only Chefs for anyone who is hiring. No costs or fees, its completely free.’
