ORACLE5: LIVE, UK’S ONLY DEDICATED ORACLE USER EVENT, RETURNS TO LONDON THIS MONTH

Friday 2 June, 2023

London, 2 June 2023 - Oracle5: Live, the UK's premier technology conference for Finance, HR and IT professionals, is thrilled to announce the highly anticipated return of its flagship event on Thursday 22nd June 2023. Taking place at the prestigious County Hall, Westminster Bridge, London, this year's Oracle5: Live promises to deliver unparalleled insights into the latest Oracle applications developments and industry updates.

Building upon the resounding success of last year's inaugural event, Oracle5: Live returns with an expanded agenda of engaging sessions, informative talks and practical tips. Designed exclusively for Finance, Accounting and HR professionals, Oracle5: Live empowers attendees with the knowledge and tools needed to excel in their roles.

"We are delighted to bring back Oracle5: Live for its second year," said Carl Robinson, Head of Marketing at Innovate Tax, one of the event’s founding partners.

"This event is a must-attend for all business users of Oracle ERP, Applications and Cloud solutions. Our agenda is tailored to the specific needs of finance professionals, supply chain managers, HR specialists and other Oracle software users. From accounting and analytics to learning and development, managed services, taxation and more, Oracle5: Live offers a comprehensive programme catering to diverse interests."

Oracle5: Live boasts an impressive line-up of sessions and tracks, featuring industry experts, Oracle partners and their esteemed customers. For 2023, the event organisers are excited to announce that the Keynote speaker is Jane Morrison, Director of Finance Transformation at Travis Perkins Plc. Jane is a highly regarded figure within her profession and industry sector, and will bring inspiration, insights and passion to her opening session.

This year the event will also benefit from practical development activities, courtesy of world-renowned social selling guru and founder of DLA Ignite, Timothy Hughes. Timothy's expertise in sales has garnered recognition worldwide, earning him a spot on LinkedIn's prestigious list of the top eight sales experts to follow in 2021. Additionally, Onalytica has acknowledged his influence in social selling by including him among the most influential individuals in the field.

In addition, participants will have the opportunity to gain valuable insights into the digital transformation journeys and forthcoming innovations directly from the experts themselves, from partners and sponsors:
