

Out of Home International promotes dentale

Wednesday 23 July, 2014

The dental implant treatment company, dentale has appointed Out of Home International to plan and book its latest advertising campaign.

The campaign will consist of ten, 6 sheet billboard posters which will be displayed across Bristol. The campaign will commence on July 28th for two weeks.

The campaign promotes affordable dental implants and half price consultations. The posters will attract viewers with big and bold copy. The contact information is easy to see and read.

Advertising with 6 sheet billboards is a great way to get your campaign and business message seen by huge audiences. They guarantee high visibility among urban areas and are effective in crowded towns and city centre areas.

Lee Dentith, CEO of Out of Home International's parent company, Media Agency Group said:

"Displaying an eye-catching campaign with a set of 6 sheet billboard posters is a great way to command attention from a huge audience in any area. By targetting prominent locations in Bristol, the campaign is sure to do its job and attract the right target audience with its concise and easy-to-read message."
