PayPro Global expands international footprint in the Big Apple

Tuesday 19 March, 2019

PayPro Global, provider of premium, industry-leading e-commerce solutions, is proud to announce the opening of its first New York office, thus expanding its reach.

Leading eCommerce solution provider for more than 12 years, PayPro Global has been offering SaaS and digital goods developers cutting edge, data-driven eCommerce solutions software, unique in the industry. The company is now pleased to announce that it has opened the doors to its first New York office. The city of New York, a true technology and business hub, is without a doubt the ideal location for the company to continue its growth and to strengthen communication with both the Canadian office and the teams in Europe.

By means of the team working in the New York office, PayPro Global is now able to rapidly supply the demand for powerful eCommerce solutions North American companies have and provide existing US clients with an even better service. The New York base, which will be working closely with both the London and Toronto offices, will allow the company to quickly respond to the needs of its US existing and future clients.

"We are proud to announce the opening of the PayPro Global New York office and we are certain that this decision will consolidate all our relationships with new and existing clients, New York being a great base to serve the fast-growing needs of the US market. We look forward to strengthening partnerships and building new ones." stated Meir Amzallag, PayPro Global CEO.
