

Platinum Jets Introduces Bespoke Private Jet Services and Innovative Instant Quote Experience

Tuesday 3 June, 2025

Swanage, UK [03/06/2025] - Platinum Jets, a distinguished private jet charter broker serving discerning travellers and business leaders worldwide, is pleased to announce the official launch of its premium charter services alongside the debut of its advanced Instant Quote feature, now available at: <https://www.platinumjets.co.uk>. This dual launch offers a refined blend of digital convenience and high-touch personalised service, redefining the private aviation experience.

With immediate access to a global network of more than 7,000 private aircraft, Platinum Jets allows clients to browse a curated selection of aircraft and receive tailored pricing in real time. Every booking is supported by a dedicated charter specialist who oversees every detail, ensuring a seamless journey from departure to arrival.

Bringing Clarity and Simplicity to Private Travel

The Instant Quote feature brings a new level of convenience and transparency to luxury air travel. With just a few clicks, clients can receive real-time pricing, compare aircraft types, and begin planning their next journey. Whether organising a last-minute business flight from London to Geneva or curating a summer escape across the Mediterranean, the process is swift, intuitive, and built around the client's schedule.

An Independent Broker with Global Capability

As an independent charter broker, Platinum Jets is not tied to any specific fleet. This affords total flexibility in sourcing the most suitable aircraft for each client's needs - from nimble light jets for short-haul city hops to large-cabin, long-range aircraft for international itineraries.

What sets Platinum Jets apart is its commitment to delivering more than just flights. Each client is paired with a dedicated charter manager who takes care of all travel arrangements, including luxury catering, ground transfers, and high-end accommodation. The team orchestrates complete travel experiences daily, combining private aviation with luxury villas, five-star hotels, yacht charters, and bespoke on-the-ground services.

Personal Service, Global Reach

Platinum Jets blends the scale of a global network with the attention to detail of a private advisor. With access to thousands of vetted aircraft across the world, clients enjoy international coverage while receiving tailored, discreet service every step of the way.

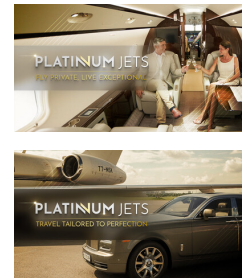

"Our mission is to elevate the private travel experience through innovation and unwavering service," said David Bungay, founder of Platinum Jets. "With the Instant Quote feature, we're simplifying the booking process while preserving the bespoke service our clients expect. It's about delivering world-class travel with ease and precision."

Now Accepting Charter Enquiries

Platinum Jets is now open for charter enquiries, with instant pricing available through its website. Whether planning a multi-city business tour, a spontaneous weekend getaway, or a long-haul family retreat, clients can start their journey today at: <https://www.platinumjets.co.uk/private-jet-charter/>.

For those who value discretion, efficiency, and world-class service, Platinum Jets introduces a new benchmark in private aviation, where innovation meets timeless luxury.
