

Poole Townsend appoints leading legal expert

Monday 4 May, 2020

Poole Townsend, the largest independent Solicitors, Estate agents and Financial advisors in the South Lake District has announced the appointment of Angela O'Neill as their new Family Lawyer and Mediator.

With over 20 years experience, Angela will be joining the Poole Townsend team to provide legal advice and representation on financial cases in divorce proceedings, wealth protection involving nuptial agreements, living together agreements and separation agreements.

Angela has particular expertise in relation to disputes concerning children, whether between the parents or between the State and parents. She has experience of dealing with Special Guardianship Orders, adoptions, and relocation of children.

Angela is also a qualified Family Mediator and is able to assist family members to find workable solutions to issues that arise in relation to children or financial matters following breakdown of family relationships.

Joanne Copeland, Director of Poole Townsend said: "We are so pleased to have Angela join the team. Whilst experiencing such unprecedented times, it's very important for us to continue to build the team and grow the business to enable us to provide our clients with a full team of experts across Property, Legal and Financial Services. Angela will be a strong member of the Legal team, supporting those in need across family law issues."

Poole Townsend, with over 130 years of legal experience. The business has seen a surge in demand across their services, especially during this time of economic uncertainty. The team has been resilient in adapting to new ways of working to serve the community and ensure their customers can be exchange ready, seek legal advice and have all life insurances and financial protection in place.
