Kamal Ladwa, Managing Director of Oaktree Language Recruitment, has this to say:

"The need for a responsive (mobile friendly) website is key to any successful recruitment strategy and our new site combines all the features that today's candidate requires to facilitate their language job search."

"We have streamlined many of the typical processes involved in registering, searching for a role and applying for a vacancy. Thereby saving the candidate a considerable amount of time and allowing them to identify suitable opportunities in a far more efficient manner."

"Not only have we added lots more functionality, but we've made the site much easier to navigate and generally given it a slick, modern feel and look."

"As demand continues to grow for multilingual candidates, we expect the site to see a considerable increase in visitors, registrations and job applications – which will allow us to continue to provide our clients with the broadest range of multilingual job seekers."

Key features include:

- Exclusive "Web App" version when accessing the site via a smartphone
- "Quick Apply" feature to register an interest in a job whilst on the move
- Hugely improved Candidate Portal to allow managing of alerts, applications and much more!

Translation Service:

Each of our clients have a multilingual element within their business and on many instances, this stretches to translating documents also. We are regularly asked by our clients if we can carry out translation work for them. It's always a pleasure for us to deliver such work and the feedback we've had to date has been extremely positive.

So literally due to popular demand, we've now launched a fully-fledged Translation service!
