

psKINETIC Appoints Sales & Marketing Director EMEA

Wednesday 16 January, 2019

psKINETIC, which has over 10 years of experience helping customers leverage the Appian platform to ensure the successful delivery of digital transformation and intelligent process automation projects, has appointed Vikki Hailey Sales & Marketing Director EMEA. Vikki previously worked for over a decade at Appian, where her dedication to customer success as Vice President Strategic Markets UK&I led to Appian's rapid growth in the region.

"We have worked closely with Vikki during her time at Appian," said Ingolv Urnes, Executive Chairman of psKINETIC. "She is the ideal person to drive forward our sales and account management team and we are very excited about having her on board."

"psKINETIC has grown to become a European strategic Delivery Partner for Appian. The Company is obsessed about delivering value to its customers by enabling return on automation," says Vikki Hailey. She continued, "I'm looking forward to helping our customers drive digital automation: working closely with them to become more efficient by standardising operations, driving down costs and unlocking the key to customer success. Every business is a software company in its own right, and psKINETIC helps organisations to leverage the most powerful platform in the market today."
