Ramadan dua eCards launched by Hope Spring

Wednesday 28 April, 2021

Water poverty alleviation charity, Hope Spring launched thirty sets of charity ecards, called Ramadan dua ecards today, the 28th of April. The eCards targeted at Muslims, represent the thirty days of the holy month of Ramadan. Each eCard contains prayers and supplication for each day of Ramadan.

The Ramadan dua eCards was devised and created for Hope Spring eCard by volunteer fundraiser Abdulwasiu Abdulraheem, a practising Muslim. Mr Abdulraheem said “during Ramadan, many of the people I know exchange these prayers and supplication ecards with each other. I thought it would be fun to design some for Hope Spring, in the hope that my Muslim brothers and sisters will use the Hope Spring version, and make a donation to the charity with each Ramadan dua ecards sent”.

The first fifteen of the Hope Spring Ramadan dua eCard, are available at the charity’s ecards website. The remaining fifteen are expected to go online next early next week, in time for the later part of the month of Ramadan.

Hope Spring ecards platform manager Evgeniy Garkaviy said “It was absolutely fantastic to have Abdulwasiu Abdulraheem on our team. His creativity and Islamic background, has added depth we previously lacked to our offering”. Mr Abdulraheem is currently working on Eid Mubarak eCards. Eid is the Muslim celebration, to mark the end of the holy month of Ramadan. Find out more information about this eCards on the Facebook page set up specially for this project.
