

Rebirth Of A Legend. Ringspun Return's

Monday 8 December, 2014

Born in the Northern Quarter, Manchester's renowned artistic melting pot back in the heady '90's, RINGSPUN has been rocked by over a generation of the coolest artists from the legendary style Icon Alex Turner to more recently DJ Yoda.

The RINGSPUN A/W 2014 Collection is based around the theme of "Military Collegiate" as always their design team has translated this effortlessly through their staple collection of archetypal Tees and Hoodies, using an enrapt selection of fabric appliqué, chain-stitch embroidery and discharge printed artwork, with themes ranging from "Devils in the Detail", "Panthers", "Roll like Thunder", "Scorpions" and "Spartans".

This A/W sees the staple jacket being reworked in sweat-shirting, either zip or button up with full fleece lining and even fur lined hoods and for a more tailored look a range of light-weight and heavy-weight knits.

A collection of outerwear to suit anyone's style preference from the classic Pea to a staple fur lined Parka and perfect cut Chinos in three standard colours.

This week sees the launch of a new website to include a Journal and a Look book sees RINGSPUN getting well and truly back on track. With cool style setters already in line to work with the brand including DJ Yoda and his "Breakfast of Champions" amongst other developmental artisans.
