Residents of Camden and Islington scoop six prestigious Churchill Travelling Fellowships

Wednesday 22 March, 2017

The Winston Churchill Memorial Trust has awarded 150 travelling Fellowships across the UK.

Six of these grants, totalling over £41,000 have been awarded to people in Camden and Islington. The Fellows will travel to five countries between them, across four continents, where they will carry out a wide range of projects. The average length of a Fellowship is six weeks.

This year's Camden and Islington Fellows are:

- Joanna Ebner, a Headmistress from Belsize Park, who will be travelling to Australia and the USA to investigate the role of scholars in residence in supporting primary school teachers' professional development.
- Temi Mwale, from Camden, and the Director of a youth-led social enterprise. She will be travelling to Brazil and the USA to investigate intiatives aimed at reducing youth violence.
- Anthony Lewis, a multimedia producer, graphic designer and science communicator from Camden, who will be travelling to Canada and the USA to explore approaches to teaching science through social media.
- Dr Erin Hope Thompson, from Kilburn, and the Founder and Director of The Loss Foundation, who will be travelling to the USA to research best practice in bereavement support.
- Jon McGoh, from Islington, the founder and governor of Reach Academy Feltham, a government state school, and the Director of Reach Cambridge, a summer school company. He will be travelling to Finland and the USA to investigate schools which foster high achievement for children from low income communities.
- Anne-Marie Douglas, a charity Chief Executive from Kings Cross, who will be travelling to the USA to explore the use of empathy development to improve services in youth justice, social care and education.

Since its inception in February 1965, 5,400 ordinary men and women have been awarded Churchill Fellowships, from over 100,000 applicants. The ethos remains the same five decades on – for individuals to visit different parts of the world in pursuit of new and better ways of tackling a wide range of social, environmental, medical and scientific issues. The new approaches and innovative ideas with which they return are shared to benefit their local and regional communities, and, in many cases, the nation.

Before his death in 1965, Sir Winston was adamant that he did not wish to have another statue as his memorial, so he approved the setting up of The Winston Churchill Memorial Trust (www.wcmt.org.uk) as his national memorial and living legacy, for the benefit of future generations. Millions of grateful people gave personal contributions to the public appeal.

"Churchill Fellows are motivated and talented individuals who travel globally and return with innovative ideas and a commitment to share their findings to help others in the UK," says Julia Weston, Chief Executive of The Winston Churchill Memorial Trust.

Churchill Fellows come from all over the UK and from many different backgrounds. They must be UK citizens aged 18 or over, but no qualifications are required. What Fellows share is a passion to make a difference and a desire to share their passion to inspire others.

Notes to Editors:

In total 150 Fellowships have been awarded across the UK in 2017, an investment of over £1,400,000 in UK citizens. The Fellows will be travelling to 49 countries between them, across 6 continents. The categories for the 2018 Winston Churchill Travelling Fellowships will be announced on 09 May 2017.
