Royal London Asset Management (RLAM) announces the latest addition to its Royal London Property Fund (RLPF) with the acquisition of a new, purpose built industrial unit in Tamworth, Staffordshire.

The unit, which is part of Alpha Park housed within Litchfield Industrial Estate, was acquired off market and is set to deliver competitive rental returns (£364,000 pa) generated through a 15 year lease agreed with Specialist Building Products Ltd.

RLPF bought the 77,000 sq. ft. site for £5.50m, another milestone for the Fund, which has seen impressive growth from £236.2m in January 2014 to £325.7m by the end of December 2014. In the same year RLPF exchanged or completed on just under £100m of acquisitions including the Cairngorm Retail Park in Milton Keynes, valued at £21.8m, and central London offices at 41 Eastcheap with a capital value of £18.6m.

Stephen Elliott, Senior Fund Manager in RLAM's property team, said:

"The UK economy is growing and investors continue to feel optimistic about property as an asset class. RLAM is well positioned to deliver longer term capital growth in this buoyant market."
