Rock star memorabilia auction will be biggest ever seen in Spain

Tuesday 9 October, 2018

Barcelona (SPAIN) 09/10/2018 — Setdart.com is auctioning the famous music journalist Jordi Tardà's collection of memorabilia. One of the most important collections in Europe related to the world of rock, it is made up of more than 10,000 items that at the time were the reason for the creation of the Rock Museum in Barcelona.

Setdart is offering collectors an excellent opportunity to acquire objects related to rock legends such as The Beatles, The Rolling Stones, Elvis Presley, Eric Clapton, Queen, Bruce Springsteen, Michael Jackson, Prince, Pink Floyd, Led Zeppelin, Deep Purple, Madonna, Guns and Roses, ACDC, U2, Metallica, The Police, Dire Straits, Elton John, Oasis, Aerosmith, among others.
The items being auctioned include signed guitars, original manuscripts, golden records, personal items, garments, autographs and lots more mementos related to the great rock stars that Jordi Tardà had the opportunity to meet through his work as a music journalist and promoter. All the legendary rock bands that performed in Barcelona throughout the thirty years of his emblematic radio show, "TardaTardà", stopped by the radio station to be interviewed face to face by the charismatic journalist, who was a regular backstage at concerts and shared historic tours with the great ones.

His penchant for collecting became evident when he created the Rock Museum of Barcelona in 2011 featuring a large part of his collection, and when he created the Collector's Record Fair, also in Barcelona, which is considered one of the world's best.The Important collection of memorabilia will be up for auction from mid October 2018 to January 2019.
