RVA Surveyors wins Business Finance Consultancy Firm of the Year

Wednesday 5 July, 2023

RVA Surveyors have won the annual Business Finance Consultancy Firm Award for 2023 from Corporate Livewire.

Earlier this year, RVA Surveyors received a third-party nomination for Corporate LiveWire's Innovation and Excellence Awards (2023). An annual event, Corporate LiveWire host and judge each nomination thoroughly before announcing the winners. Nominees were considered based on factors such as: quality of service, experience, innovation, sustainability, as well as many others.

"It was fantastic to have simply been nominated, let alone win." Anthony Hughes, Managing Director at RVA Surveyors said.

"To have the wider business community recognise and acknowledge the work our team has delivered to date, and are continuing to deliver, is a huge achievement. Their hard work and dedication have seen the business continue to thrive and evolve in recent years."

RVA Surveyors are the business rates reduction specialists. Run by the Hughes family for nearly twelve years, they have focused on delivering excellent service to their clients. With over 47,000 properties engaged so far and an 85% success rate at the Check Challenge Appeal, and Audit process, RVA Surveyors are committed to securing significant reductions in business rates liabilities throughout England and Wales for companies of all sizes.

This award is the latest addition to the series of awards that RVA Surveyors have won in the past twelve months. Where the company has been recognised for its continuing hard work in the fields of: learning and development, business rates specialists, business growth, and family business.
