

Sal. Oppenheim Offers Financing For A Green Energy Conglomerate in China

Tuesday 27 April, 2021

Sal. Oppenheim is pleased to announce that it is in talks to fund US$350M in the form of debt and equity in a green energy conglomerate in China.

With COVID-19 pandemic continuing to be in focus, companies that place a strong emphasis on environmental, social and governance (ESG) are increasingly sought after. In today's rapidly changing business climate, attention to ESG issues is becoming critical to long-term competitive success. Evolving with socio-economic and environmental changes allows companies to better recognise strategic opportunities and respond to competitive challenges.

Mr. Craige Stevenson, Private Banking Division said, "In a world where sustainability is becoming increasingly important in the investment climate, Sal. Oppenheim is developing innovative funding solutions for our clients. Being in a position to offer funding for companies working towards a greener future has been one of our key objectives, aligning with the global shift towards sustainable investing."

"Sal. Oppenheim is committed to providing funding to our clients in Hong Kong and the region," said Amos Chong, Executive Vice President of Sal. Oppenheim. "The continued expansion of our product offerings leverages our deep on-the-ground expertise and enables us to tailor vital solutions to our clients in accordance with clients' objectives."

Sal. Oppenheim continually works locally and globally to back businesses and support the economy of developing countries. Our stock loan and securities lending programs have been a massive success with investors and have enabled substantial investment throughout Asia, Europe and Latin America.
