

Sandwell Mayor Opens Barratt Homes Development In Tipton

Monday 17 February, 2014

Last week (Thursday 6th February 2014) the Worshipful the Mayor of Sandwell, Councilor Linda Horton officially opened Barratt Homes Mercia's Barrows Place development on Bloomfield Road, Tipton.

The event, which was attended by a member of the council and other local VIPs, marked the official opening of the next stage of building at the site in Tipton. Councilor Horton and her consort Roger Horton was present to unveil a plaque and plant a tree in the grounds of the sales office after touring the show home and getting a sense of what the housebuilder was trying to achieve in the area.

Upon opening the new development and visiting the brand new show home, Councilor Horton had this to say; "It was a pleasure to open Barratt Homes' Barrows Place development in Tipton. It is a new homes development that the area has needed for a while and I am pleased to have played my part. I enjoyed planting the tree and having a good look around the show home. "

Angela Nurse, Sales Manager at David Wilson Homes Mercia said; "We are extremely grateful that the Worshipful the Mayor of Sandwell, Councilor Linda Horton was able to attend this important event. It is fantastic to have the support of the local Mayor and she was pleased to be able plant a tree at the development."

Barrows Place is conveniently located close to Dudley town centre with essential amenities close by. Victoria Park is just moments away and has a lake, tennis courts and vast amounts of space to enjoy with the family.
