Save The Date: BITE Festival 2014 1 To 9 February

Monday 30 September, 2013

Celebrating fabulous food and passionate producers, talented chefs and wonderful epicurean experiences, Chipping Campden in the Cotswolds becomes a foodie haven for nine days from the 1st February when the BITE Festival turns a quieter time of year, into a taste-bud extravaganza.

The Festival will include high tea with famed international pastry chef Claire Clark MBE, a literary lunch with Arrabella Weir, dinner with Anthony Worrall Thompson, a Great Indian Food Feast with Urban Rajah Ivor Peters and Indunil Sanchi, Champagne Afternoon Tea with Eric Lanlard, the Cotswold Breweries Beer Safari, an Artisan Food Market, a Children's Tea Party with Annabel Waley Cohen and Hatty Speed alongside a host of delectable delights.

We hope you can join us for a festival of foodie delights. More to come soon...
