

Saxon Rise Brings New Homes To Brixworth

Thursday 27 February, 2014

An opportunity to buy a new home in Brixworth, Northamptonshire is now available thanks to a new development from leading homebuilder, Barratt Homes Northampton, which will be launching this weekend (1st March 2014).

The new development, Saxon Rise, is located off Northampton Road on Salt Pikes in Brixworth and aims to provide 150 new homes over the coming months, underpinning approximately 300 jobs for local people.

This beautiful development features a range of homes from the Barratt County range some of which are built with natural stone from the surrounding area, in keeping with the rest of Brixworth. With a wide selection of two, three, four and five bedroom homes, set within a village location, it will no doubt prove to be extremely popular with both families and young professionals alike.

Alison Raine, Sales Director at Barratt Homes Northampton, said: "Saxon Rise is one of many developments which will be opening this year and we are looking forward to bringing more of the hallmark quality with which Barratt has become synonymous.

"We'll be opening the doors to our Sales Centre this weekend (1st March) and we encourage all prospective homebuyers to come and visit us for the chance to find out more information about the stunning range of homes we have on offer and to talk to our experienced Sales Advisers about how we can help you.

"This development has already generated a tremendous amount of interest online, with over 500 website views in the last week alone, so if you're looking for a new home with an idyllic countryside lifestyle and excellent commuter links, then you should register your interest early to avoid disappointment."

Saxon Rise is set within a village location, surrounded by open countryside and alongside a country park. There is an excellent range of amenities nearby, including shops and restaurants, and the development itself is just a short drive from Northampton town centre.

It is within easy reach of junction 15 of the M1, linking you to Milton Keynes, and the A45 to Kettering and Bedford. Northampton town itself also boasts a train station providing good links to London and other major cities.

There are a range of helpful schemes on offer to make buying and moving into your new home as easy as possible. With Help to Buy, for example, you can buy a quality Barratt Home up to the value of £600,000 with only a five per cent deposit, a 75 per cent mortgage and a Government funded equity loan of 20 per cent. This scheme is available to all homebuyers, not just first time buyers.

Barratt Homes also offers a range of deals to existing homeowners, such as Movemaker. With this scheme, you can reserve your new home whilst Barratt Homes helps you sell yours, with no estate agents fees to pay. The homebuilder liaises with two agents on your behalf to get the best competitive price and when an acceptable offer is made, the estate agent will ensure things run smoothly through to completion.

To register an interest or for further details about Barratt Homes' developments in your area, please call the sales centre on 0844 811 3399 or log onto the website at www.barratthomes.co.uk.
