Seasonz Receives Funding That Will Boost Luxury Travel in New Zealand

Friday 14 June, 2013

Seasonz Travel, a luxury New Zealand travel agency, has recently received funding from Trade & Enterprise New Zealand which will be utilised to further grow the travel industry in New Zealand. Seasonz Travel typically works with clients who are looking for luxury tailor-made travel experiences across New Zealand and the South Pacific. From high end corporate clients and private groups through to families and individuals, Seasonz assists with travel plans and itineraries. The funding will be used to market New Zealand as a “must do” destination for corporate and private group clients.

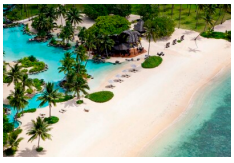

“We have already seen a large growth of higher end clients visiting the New Zealand area,” says Seasonz Director, Sam Porter. “Our goal is to utilise the funding we have received to better market New Zealand to these types of clients. It will really allow us to reach out to discerning corporate and private groups who want stellar travel experiences. It’s great for the clients and it’s fantastic for New Zealand tourism”.

Trade & Enterprise New Zealand is an organisation designed to help New Zealand businesses grow internationally, and often works with travel agents in NZ to make that happen. Their funding is designed to make this goal a reality. Seasonz Travel , voted one of the top 5 destination travel management companies by the Virtuoso Travel Network, obtained the funding because their goal was in line with Trade & Enterprise New Zealand’s goals. It will result in a better travel industry for New Zealand and will further the initiative of both organisations.
