Stars & Red Roses Introduces Enchanting Game of Thrones-Inspired Crystal Jewellery Collection

Saturday 30 March, 2019

The Winter Reign Collection will generate a buzz in the alternative, cosplay and comic convention community, as it brings new meaning to geek-chic, with pieces made from a combination of bright silver alloys and strikingly colourful genuine Swarovski crystals, that complement each other in the most magical way.

In a world where dainty and minimalistic jewellery has stolen the runways, independent artisan Georgina Croft from Stars & Red Roses has redefined modern jewellery, with her bold and exciting statement necklaces, allowing geeks and fans of pop culture to showcase their distinctive individuality.

Fans of Stars & Red Roses brand have been eagerly anticipating the new Winter Reign Collection, which officially launches on Monday 15th April 2019, to coincide with the first episode of the final season of Game of Thrones.

The colourful new designs are available in limited quantities to ensure uniqueness, and each product will be individually made by the designer herself, with personalisation's available for each buyer.

The collection will be exclusively sold on the website StarsAndRedRoses.com, where the limited products are expected to sell out by the end of the season.

From the ethereal beauty of the 'Ghost's Whisper' necklace to the stunning majesty of the 'Lion's Quest' necklace, Georgina's statement pieces are designed to showcase flawless sparkling beauty, along with mystery and intrigue.

These wearable pieces of art will allow fantasy lovers everywhere to experience a sense of pride and independence, and a lasting connection to their favourite book and TV show characters.

Several products feature colour-shifting aurora borealis crystals in blues, purples and greens which capitalise on today's trends.

All items are created using nickel and lead-free metals, meaning dragon fans with metal allergies don't miss out on the chance to enjoy Georgina's captivating wearable art pieces.

The collection also includes customisable glass bead earrings to complement the crystal necklaces, as well as specific crystal and bead colour customisation opportunities for each buyer.

The Winter Reign Collection will range in price from £8 for earrings to £46 for Georgina's statement crystal necklaces.
