Stock Up for College with Beauty Express

Thursday 12 September, 2013

Beauty Express has everything students need for their beauty college course. Whether it's beauty kits or top-up kits, there's great savings online at Beauty Express.

Beauty Express is one of the largest suppliers to beauty colleges throughout the UK and Ireland. Anyone studying on a beauty course can order high-quality college beauty kits online from Beauty Express. Their selection of standard beauty kits for levels 1, 2 and 3 are all approved by Habia. These Habia-approved kits comply with NVQ guidelines and contain all of the beauty course essentials to help you get started.

These beauty kits range from massage kits, manicure and pedicure kits, make-up kits, waxing kits and complete beauty kits containing everything from nail scissors to emery boards, manicure sticks, cuticle oil, nail varnish, eyelash curlers, French manicure kits, facial brushes and eyelash kits.

The Beauty Express range also includes top-up and optional kits. Salon System eyelash kits, now available at 20% off, are great additions to standard college kits. These kits allow you to practise specialist treatments from eyelash perming, to eyelash tinting and lash extensions. Now is also the time to take advantage of huge half price savings on the Salon System Thai Skincare Kit, perfect for students practising facials. The waxing kits offered by Beauty Express have everything you need to get started, including wax heaters available at reduced prices. And with 3 for 2 savings on Salon Services wax, you can ensure you have enough wax to become an expert.

Don't forget about the smaller items too. From cotton pads to tissues, gloves and wax strips, with Beauty Express you can continue to top up your student kit all year long. Beauty Express also offer bulk buy savings on their disposable beauty lines, so why not group together with friends and save?

Commenting on their beauty kits, a spokesperson for Beauty Express said:

"Beauty Express have been successfully equipping beauty students with college kits for many years and we take pride in this service. The positive feedback we have received from both colleges and students is testament to this."
