

Students in Manchester launch Volunteer drive to support the vulnerable (Covid-Jihad)

Monday 16 March, 2020

Our country is facing a major catastrophe which is starting to result in chaotic scenes in some parts of the country. In the midst of this chaos there is a genuine fear that the most vulnerable in society will be neglected.

Team MCM has launched a campaign for a Jihad (struggle) against Covid-19 titled team COVID-JIHAD to help provide voluntary services to the elderly and vulnerable.

VOLUNTEERS REQUIRED FOR:

1. Helping vulnerable people who are in self-isolation by delivering urgent supplies to them.
2. Helping NHS services with volunteers.
3. Helping food-banks to raise much needed supplies and to help distribute those supplies.
