SUNNY SIDE IN LONDON'S SOUTH BANK

Celebrate the fun of summer in South Bank with alfresco dining, festivals and family fun

[London, 26th May 2015] - South Bank London's summer-long campaign Sunny Side celebrates the coming of this exciting season, highlighting the huge variety of festivals, performances, events and experiences in the area from all the iconic (and newly discovered) destinations.

This summer there are even more activities and events for all age groups, including the My Summer in South Bank drawing competition (July-September) for children aged between four and thirteen. South Bank London will provide visitors with the best guides and advice on what to see and do from www.southbanklondon.com, via the InfoBike weekend tourist information service on the Riverside Walkway (launched on Saturday 23rd May), and of course, the Riverside London App. Visitors can follow #sunnyside on Twitter and Instagram for up to date events and to share their own South Bank experiences.

-South Bank's Summer Highlights:

Sunshine Mascots

On June 21st, South Bank London's Sunshine Mascots will welcome visitors to South Bank on the first day of summer, handing out the One Big Summer Guide (an essential guide to what's on in around the area) and giving away summer treats.

For further press information, contact Gemma Hutchinson, gemma.hutchinson@southbanklondon.com, 020 7202 6918

Family Fun

Forsunny adventures (indoors and out) visit the newly opened Shrek's Adventure! London, where you can see your favourite Shrek characters in a fantastical tour and laugh-out-loud live shows (from 1st July). Learn the tricks of the trade in the skateboard school at House of Vans London (Saturdays, free). For more chilling fun, head to The London Dungeon any day of the week to find out: will Jack the Ripper strike again? Be wowed by strange and beautiful creatures of the deep at SEA LIFE London Aquarium (open daily), and see the capital from the highest heights on Coca-Cola London Eye (open daily). Take the fun to the River on City Cruises on MBNA Thames Clippers, and splash down on a themed London Duck Tour. Join the Florence Nightingale Museum for hands-on family activities this summer (open daily), and at Oxo Tower Wharf, the Crick Crack Club's Fabularium Fairytale Festival is an extravaganza of fairytales for grown-ups and kids (24th July – 4th August).

Children between four and thirteen years old will have the chance to win exciting prizes and see their artwork in the South Bank Picture Book, by taking part in the My Summer in South Bank drawing competition, from South Bank London (July – September). For further press information contact Gemma Hutchinson, gemma.hutchinson@southbanklondon.com, 020 7202, 6918.

Food and Drink

South Bank is smoking like a BBQ with delicious, summer menus. Highlights include seasonal dishes and delightful cocktails at OXO Tower Restaurant, Bar & Brasserie (open daily), and the quintessentially British Gillray's Steakhouse & Bar (open daily), Mediterranean feasts at L'Italiano, Park Plaza County Hall (open daily), and locally sourced delights at The Green Room (open daily). When it's time to toast the sunshine, head to South Bank's best cocktail bars including, Skylon Bar, who are paying homage to High Society at The Old Vic with a 1920's theme (until 22nd August); the contemporary Primo Bar, Park Plaza Westminster Bridge; and enjoy a Drunken Tea at Dandelyan at Mondrian London (weekends).

Stage and Screen

On stage, National Theatre has a haunting and humorous play from Academy Award nominee Patrick Marber, Three Days in the Country that will entice visitors away from the sunshine (21st July – 21st October). At The Old Vic, there are just a few weeks to see to the 'swellegant, elegant party' as High Society reaches its final weeks (until 22 August). On screen, there's everything from popcorn shaking blockbusters like Jurassic World (until 25th June) and Mission Impossible: Rogue Nation (30th July – 5th August) at BFI IMAX, a major celebration of London in London on Film at BFI Southbank (1st July – 9th October) and the best in contemporary film at the Curzon Mondrian London, to keep film fans satisfied (Friday evenings, Saturdays and Sundays).

Festivals and Exhibitions

What would summer be without a festival? Leave the tent behind and get to Southbank Centre for Festival of Love and celebrate the best of mankind with a series of free events and family fun (6th June – 31st August) or see Oscar & Golden Globe award-winning musician, David Byrne, known for his eclectic collaborations, as he curates Meltdown (17th-30th August). See a world where nothing is quite as it seems from Carsten Höller: Decision at Hayward Gallery (10th June – 6th September 2015) or explore wildlife photography from around the world at gallery@oxo in Focus on the Wild (24th July – 16th August 2015). To see artistic responses to conflict, past and present, head to IWM London for Visions of War Above and Below (until 25th September 2016), Unofficial War Artist, a major retrospective of political artist Peter Kennard (until 30th May 2016) or take a final chance to see Fashion on the Ration: 1940s Street Style (until 31st August 2015).
