

Sustainable Christmas 2024: The SocialBox.Biz initiative enhances social impact by addressing corporate social responsibility challenges for over a decade.

Monday 2 December, 2024

SocialBox.Biz, a non-profit organisation in London, is urging companies and large organisations to contact them first before discarding or recycling their old, still functional technology.

With over a decade of impact, the initiative is helping companies and organisations reduce scope 3 emissions and enhance their social impact.

By donating devices, companies can reduce their carbon footprint and positively impact the lives of those who cannot afford hardware or software. Companies are encouraged to incorporate SocialBox.Biz community interest company into their board agenda and annual report for 2024/25.
