

Suzuki announce special edition Gsr750z

Tuesday 17 June, 2014

Suzuki has announced details of a new special edition GSR750, with the factory-built 'Z' model available in dealerships now.

Derived from the iconic GSX-R750 machine, the special edition GSR750 naked comes in a unique blue and white paint scheme, reminiscent of Suzuki's traditional racing colours, and boasts a Yoshimura R11 silencer.

Other special touches include a belly pan as standard, gold anodised fork outers and red adjusters, blue drive-chain, matt finished handlebars, and red rear suspension spring.

The special edition GSR750Z is available with an RRP of £7,399, with an ABS option available for £7,799, each just £400 more than the standard versions. It is also included in Suzuki's current £750 Deposit Paid offer, with low monthly payment deals available.
