'Tabla Vibe' - Celebrate National Curry Week The Shoreditch Way

Monday 6 October, 2014

Curry lovers around the UK will unite to celebrate National Curry Week (13th -19th October 2014) but there's one London pop up that everyone's talking about. Street food restaurant Indigoand pop-up mall BOXPARK SHOREDITCH have come together to bring a weekend (17th and 18th October) of great food, music and entertainment, showcasing the amazing sights, sounds and flavours from the Indian sub-continent.

'Tabla Vibe' takes place at BOXPARK SHOREDITCH at 2 Bethnal Green Rd, London E1 6HT, a stone's throw from Indigo Shoreditch. Open from 3-7pm on Friday 17th October and Saturday 18th October from 12 noon -7pm. Visitors will be able to tuck into street food delights from Indigo, our famous chaat bites, wraps and biriyanis, while listening to live music from Jalali Baul, tabla drummers, and there's even a chance to get your hands on an instant vintage photos by one of the team from PolarSnap.

And if that's not enough, we're giving away FREE chai and a number of great prizes, including FREE meals for four at Indigo, a year's membership of Richmix (www.richmix.org.uk) and many more.

But the prize that everyone has their eye on is a romantic Valentine's trip for two to India! A chance to soak up the culture of an incredible country, on us! This competition will run until the end of January 2015 at Indigo's restaurants.

Indigo operates four restaurants in London, Shoreditch - 35-47 Bethnal Green Rd, London, E1 6LA - as well as Westfield London, Westfield Stratford City and Bluewater. For more information: www.indi-go.co

Opened in 2011, BOXPARK SHOREDITCH offers an alternative retail and dining options in the heart of East London, bringing together some of the city's best and brightest designers, as well as fabulous food. For more information:www.boxpark.co.uk

We are also working with PolarSnap, who have changed the concept of the photo booth forever. They believe that an instant photo should capture the natural moments enjoyed, rather than in the forced environment of a photo booth. PolarSnap uses new and old school technology, from the good old days of just point, shoot and print, to printing off 'hash-tagged' photos. Find us at corporate occasions and brand promotions to weddings and festivals. For more information visit www.PolarSnap.co.uk
