EVA Air, Taiwan's award-winning leading independent airline and Star Alliance member, is celebrating an increased service on its 'Kangaroo Route' – Taipei-Brisbane, which launched earlier this month – by unveiling awesome autumn offerings on flights from London Heathrow to Brisbane, Australia ...with special return fares from just £642 per person!

Travelling to the cultural capital of Queensland, and available to book until Thursday 30th November 2016, EVA Air's exciting offer is valid for travel in all three cabin classes: Economy (from £642pp), Elite Class (from £845pp) and Royal Laurel (from £2,555pp) – with generous baggage allowance for each!

This unmissable promotion follows the introduction of three new flights on the carrier's already well-established Taipei-Brisbane route, which launched on Tuesday 4th October, increasing the service frequency from two to five weekly flights. Increasingly popular amongst both business and leisure passengers, EVA Air's Taipei-Brisbane route has been in operation for almost 23-years, and is expected to carry additional high-spending visitors as a result of the increased frequency.

Flying to the iconic city of Taipei via Bangkok, EVA Air operates direct daily flights from London Heathrow, facilitating further connections to Brisbane, Australia – as well as several other popular destinations across Asia.
