

Tender Recruiting Young People to Campaign Against Domestic Violence

Monday 11 August, 2014

Tender is looking for young people between the ages of 14-21 to join their Youth Board, a governing body who steer the organisation's campaigns and keep the work relevant to the lives of young people in the UK.

With the incredible success of #StandUpWorldCup, Tender is now aiming to begin work on new campaigns to engage online audiences in a global conversation about domestic violence. Youth Board members gain valuable experience in charity management, campaigning, media, communications, lobbying and advocacy! The group meets once a month.
