

Tesco Bank Launches Leading No Fee Balance Transfer Clubcard Credit Card

Wednesday 20 August, 2014

Media:

Tesco Bank has today introduced a new credit card that allows customers to transfer balances without paying any balance transfer fees. The card also offers customers 0% interest on all purchases and balance transfers for 10 months. This means customers can benefit by paying no interest on any balances for 10 months without paying any balance transfer fees. At the end of the 10 month period a representative APR of 18.9% applies.

All Tesco Bank Clubcard Credit Card customers are rewarded with Clubcard points on all their spending – receiving one Clubcard point for every £4 spent on their card*. This means cardholders can collect points wherever they spend.
