Just a few steps from Clapham Common tube station, this much-loved cornerstone of the Clapham restaurant scene is now serving delicious, Thai street-food style breakfasts every weekend. This popular, south west London restaurant is a well-known destination for quality Thai food, particularly celebrated for the authentic, street-food style dishes the Thai chefs consistently produce.

The Pepper Tree joined the Eco Restaurant group early in 2014 and underwent a beautiful renovation, keeping the canteen style tables and introducing a wonderful, modern design. The restaurant team are honoured to have received the Time Out We Love London Award for Best Restaurant in Clapham - voted for by the people.

The Pepper Tree team have proudly launched a new BREAKFAST MENU, complete with cocktails, spicy Thai dishes and traditional brunch choices with an Asian twist. The menu features such favourites as eggs benedict with a lemongrass hollandaise and congee the traditional Thai breakfast porridge. Guaranteed hangover cures such as a Lychee Mai Tai or a Chilli Mojito, will certainly clear even the most foggy of heads.
