

The Agri-Food industry in Lincolnshire

Tuesday 5 December, 2017

Are you telling your students how Greater Lincolnshire is feeding the nation? The region's Agri-Food industry employs over 75,000 people who are all producing and packing food to be distributed around the UK.

And that's why in Greater Lincolnshire 1 in 10 people are employed in food and farming!

Lincolnshire has an international reputation for food, fish and farming. This reputation comes hand in hand with exciting employers and careers available to your students. Because when you think of Agri-Food, you may just think about farming, but it is so much more than that!

You need farmers to grow the produce, packers to pack, drivers to transport, fisherman to fish. Then think of all the other cogs which goes into the Agri-Food machine....

Marketing managers to create a brand to promote the product. Sales advisors to sell the product into the market. Engineers to build and maintain farm machinery. Warehouse managers to ensure the products are stored correctly. Transport Planners to manage the distribution of the products. So dive into the world of Agri-Food and learn more here.
