The Sun Has Got His Hat On With Melrose And Morgan's 'Picmix And Match'

Tuesday 2 June, 2015

Summer is almost upon us and nothing signifies the change in season more than eating in the great outdoors with a great British picnic.

This year Melrose and Morgan has revamped its summer picnics to give customers more choice and the ability to mix and match to create a bespoke picnic all of their own. With five set picnic boards, each at £15, the PicMix and Match showcases a wider selection of picnic ideas as well as offering a new easy way to transport it to your chosen spot.

Highlights from the picnic boards include; CURED MEAT featuring charcuterie from London's Cobble Lane Cured, SMOKED FISH featuring Upton Smokery smoked trout pate and smoked salmon, CHEESE featuring an exclusive Hampshire baby buffalo brie, homemade piccalilli and Sally Clarke Oatcakes, VEGETARIAN featuring a choice of two handmade savoury tarts and gordal olives and DESSERT featuring Summer berry jelly and Summer berries.

Melrose and Morgan founder, Nick Selby, says; "We might struggle with the good old British weather on occasion, but nothing dampens our spirits when it comes to eating in the great outdoors. This year we've come up with an ingenious new picnic carrier and shared some of our favourite picnic spots across London's parks and green spaces.

You'll see some classic picnic fare, but there will be greater choice and a much easier way to scale your picnic up and down for any last minute additional guests. And, have no fear, we've packed a couple of trusty rain macs in case a summer rain cloud makes an appearance."
