?Jordan Lawson, Managing Director, The UK Careers Fair, comments: "We are delighted to be back in London and regroup with exhibitors and candidates in person. We all know that online applications can be very time-consuming and transactional. By attending this event, candidates from in and around London will be able to network directly with local and national companies to discover new opportunities, and employers can find extraordinary talent."

Daniel Levy, Chairman, Tottenham Hotspur, comments
"Tottenham Hotspur has been the key driver of employment within our community for many years – more than 4,000 local people have found jobs across a range of sectors as a direct result of our stadium development and the wider sport-led regeneration of North Tottenham. We are therefore delighted that The UK Careers Fair has elected to hold its London event at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium, enabling jobseekers from across the capital to visit Spurs and leave with a life-changing opportunity."
