The high-pressure hose and hose reel allow for fast and easy set up and storage once the dirt busting task is complete. Certainly one they will want to put to good use right away!

GADGET GUYS AND GIRLS

Over £1,000

A simple way to ensure your loved ones can spend time enjoying their garden, whilst also appealing to their smart technology addiction, is to gift them a Bosch Indego Connect (RRP £1,299) robotic lawnmower.

The ultimate gift to give this year, Indego Connect incorporates advanced Bosch technology and can be relied upon to do all the work, without the need to even push it along. Advances in robotics and connectivity allow the lawnmower to be controlled through a smart phone or tablet app, even if the user is relaxing on a beach many miles away from home. Indego Connect also uses innovative Logicut technology which enables it to cut in parallel lines – so it's extremely efficient at looking after the lawn. A clever bump sensor can also detect obstacles such as bikes, paths and stones so there's no danger of the mower accidentally knocking anything in the garden or going where it shouldn't.

With Indego Connect your loved ones can say goodbye to pushing a heavy lawnmower and use the spare time to do more of the things they love, in or out of the garden.

Under £120
