

Today, Futerra became the first agency officially named a 'Climate Solutions Provider' under the UN-backed Race to Zero climate campaign.

Monday 19 September, 2022

Embargoed until 08.00am (BST, London) Tuesday 20th September 2022.

- Announced by the Race to Zero partner Exponential Roadmap Initiative, Futerra is the first agency named as a 'Climate Solutions Provider'
- Futerra fulfils Exponential Roadmap Initiative criteria of at least 90% of revenue coming from projects aligned with the 1.5°C ambition.

The new status was announced today at a high-level panel during New York Climate Week.

In a move true to its mission, change-agency Futerra, has become the first 'Climate Solutions Provider' within the professional service industry.

The title has been granted by the Exponential Roadmap Initiative - an accredited partner of UN-backed Race To Zero campaign and a founding partner of the 1.5°C Supply Chain Leaders and the SME Climate Hub.

The Climate Solutions Provider title follows a new set of criteria developed by the Exponential Roadmap Initiative to onboard companies into the Race To Zero who are providing solutions which avoid emissions or enable avoidance of emissions by others through their services or solutions. The need for professional services companies to recognize the influence they have over emissions that result from their decisions is also highlighted in the Race To Zero Criteria 2022.

Futerra fulfils Exponential Roadmap Initiative criteria as a "Climate Solutions Provider":

- Integrates climate/nature in corporate vision/mission/values.
- Align with the 1.5°C ambition and the four climate pillars as outlined in the 1.5°C Business Playbook in regards to targets, plans, actions and disclosure.
- 90% of customer/project portfolio revenue is aligned with the 1.5°C ambition.
- Disclosure of portfolio on an annual basis to ensure a continuous alignment.

Futerra has joined a small list of pioneering organizations also awarded the coveted title, for example Polestar, Kivra and Deedster.

Futerra is already a founding B-Corp, the pioneer of Client Disclosure Reports, and Clean Creatives signatory. Boasting clients such as WWF, Google, Earthjustice, Estee Lauder, PVH, Lego, Grupo Bimbo, Netflix, Sierra Club, Kao Corporation, The Nature Conservancy and Rainforest Alliance, it's no surprise that Futerra is one of the leading agencies providing climate solutions worldwide. Futerra is co-hosting Solutions House during Climate Week – dedicated to creative answers to humanity's climate question.

Speaking at Solutions House during the announcement, Solitaire Townsend - Co-founder and Chief Solutionist of Futerra, says;

"Today, I'm both deeply grateful and equally anxious. Grateful to our 100+ clients, for sending us fantastic sustainability briefs. Grateful to every creative, courageous and committed Futerran for making such brilliant work. Grateful to pioneer this Climate Solutions Provider status for our industry. But, how many agencies will join us? Creativity is essential to solving climate change, but it can't be neutral. I call on every agency head to ask: how long will it take us to reach this standard? Your answer must be 'on my watch'."

Johan Falk, CEO & Co-founder, Exponential Roadmap Initiative, says:

"We are thrilled to welcome Futerra to the Exponential Roadmap Initiative and UN-backed Race to Zero. Futerra is joining as a Climate Solutions Provider, meaning that they fulfil ERI's criteria of at least 90% of revenue coming from projects that align with the 1.5°C ambition. As a result, Futerra has a great opportunity as a change agency to enable clients to align with halving of global emissions by 2030 and accelerate climate solutions and to promote sustainable lifestyles. Further, this can inspire other professional services companies to align their project and client portfolios with 1.5°C, which will be required to prosper and stay in business the next decade.”

Nigel Topping, UN Climate Change High Level Champion for COP26, says:

“Exponential Roadmap Initiative’s ‘Climate Solutions Provider’ category is a brilliant illustration of embedding and delivering on the leadership practices introduced in the latest update to Race to Zero’s criteria. We need to see all corporates whose business model it is to communicate, influence or shape behaviour take on the responsibility of slashing emissions through their creativity. It’s great to see Futerra stepping up to this, and we hope to see many more actors following suit.”
