Tom Challinor promoted to Head of Sales at thinkTRIBE

Wednesday 21 September, 2022

thinkTRIBE are pleased to announce the promotion of Tom Challinor to Head of Sales. Tom joined as a Business Development Manager in 2014 and has held a number of positions since then. His new role will not only cover sales but also the all-important relationships with existing key partners as well as seeking out new strategic partnerships going forward.

"Tom's promotion is totally deserved as he has proved himself time and time again with the company during his nearly 8 years with us. He is effective and hard-working - and knows the importance of customer relationships- so I am positive he will bring these skills - and more - to his new role" said Managing Director Eric Darling.

Tom commented, "I'm looking forward to this new and exciting opportunity to push forwards for thinkTRIBE, share my experience with a growing team and contribute to future business success."

ThinkTRIBE also announces that it is strengthening its sales team with a new appointment as Robin May, a Sales Professional with over 15 years of experience, joins as Senior Business Development Manager.
