

TrekFest The Peaks Returns After A Sell Out Year!

Tuesday 25 September, 2018

TrekFest The Peaks returns on Saturday 31 August 2019 in the stunning Peak District National Park. The ultimate UK trekking challenge involves hiking in the rugged countryside for either 25km or 50km, whilst raising vital funds for the charity of your choice.

This year's TrekFest The Peaks was a huge success, with over 1200 people signing up – and 2019 is going to be even bigger and better!

Company Director at Global Adventure Challenges, Peter Robinson said: "Since launching TrekFest in 2013, it has quickly become our most popular event - with a record number of trekkers joining us on our 2018 challenge. TrekFest is a fantastic opportunity to take on an adventure whilst supporting a cause you're passionate about. Since its launch in 2013, TrekFest has raised an amazing £2 million for charities nationwide.

"TrekFest will test you both physically and mentally, but with the right training and preparation it is more than achievable. The challenge is suitable for both trekking beginners and expert hikers alike – the camaraderie amongst our trekkers is second to none!"

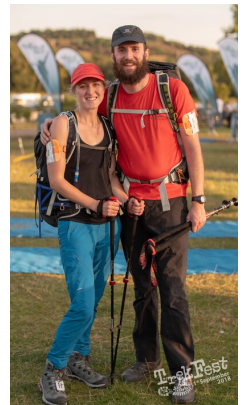

TrekFest is much more than your average trekking challenge, but is a full weekend of adventure. Our Event Village is the perfect place to soak up the pre and post event atmosphere, with plenty of facilities including our chill-out tepee and inflatable pub! Your registration also includes complimentary camping and parking, a post trek massage, hot meal, finishers t-shirt and medal.

Whether you enter as an individual or as a team, team spirit will be flying high and our awesome TrekFest crew will be supporting you every step of the way. We also have a brand-new range of corporate packages available for 2019; TrekFest is a fantastic way to build team morale, increase staff well being and engage employees to hit your CRS objectives – as a multitude of our corporate teams will attest to.

Choose your distance, choose your charity and make every step count! Beat the price break and save on your registration fee, if you sign up before 30th November 2019 at www.trekfest.org.uk or call us on 01244 676454 for further information.
